(Ranging from 30 minutes to 4 Hours)

HERE'S JUST A TASTE
of what we've got up our sleeve...

In-Person:

Arctic Pursuit™

Planning & Execution –

Convert activity into productivity as a team of researchers in the unexplored Great White North

Gold of the Desert Kings™

Planning & Productivity –

Challenge the status quo by asking "What's possible?" in search of gold

Promises, Promises™

Planning & Execution –

With the clock ticking, this experiential activity quickly breaks down barriers to show the importance of delivering on your priorities and those of the greater group.

Council of the Marble Star™

Deliver Results with Integrity –

Deliver results through negotiating and building productive relationships with personal integrity to earn your seat in King Arthur's Court

Virtual:

Cakeopolis™

Problem Solving –

Teams are bakers who have baked a giant cake for a celebrity. They now need to work together to move all tiers of the fabulous cake to the party!

Elk Manor™

Accountability & Culture –

As members of Global Recovery Inc., teams look for missing jewels in a secluded manor house where it is said that a world-famous thief, the Grey Mist, has hidden them.

Rescue Orion™

Prioritization, Collaboration & Execution –

As the crew of a spaceship, teams must gather resources and bring them to scientists who are stranded at the Orion space station.

Sandcastle Cove™

Collaborating to Drive Results –

Participants vote on what path they will take through the African Savannah to photograph wildlife.

BIMBO CANADA

LESLEE WILLS – VP People & Corporate Affairs

"Gold of the Desert Kings™ (GDK) is the perfect balance of fun and 'aha' moments that have participants experience first hand some simple but super impactful lessons that will elevate their effectiveness as a team. The magic of an Eagle's Flight program is learning thru doing and GDK delivers huge value here...start with a great plan, value information and ask what's possible!!!"
